Heart of a child

Whatever you write on the heart of a child. No water can wash away. The sand may be shifted when billows are wild, and the efforts of time may decay. Some stories may perish, some songs be forgot, but this graven record— time changes not. Whatever you write on the heart of a child, a story of gladness of care that heaven has blessed or earth has defiled, will linger unchangeably there.

Life's Journey

Life is like a journey, taken on a plane, with a pair of travelers at each window pane; I may sit beside you the whole journey through, or I may be seated elsewhere, never knowing you; but if fate should place me to sit at your side, let's be pleasant travelers: it's so short to ride.
